Long-Term Full-Time Training (LTFT)

Long-Term Full-Time (LTFT) Training is a full-time competitive program that provides mission-related technical skills and expertise that cannot be obtained through hiring, reassignment or a series of short courses. LTFT offers AFTC federal civilian employees the opportunity to receive training on a full-time basis for a period of over 120 days.

Eligibility:

- Must have completed three years of permanent federal civil service employment at Edwards AFB
- Meet all admissions requirements for the selected university
- Possess an undergraduate degree by application deadline
- AFRL and Associate Units should consult with their MAJCOM for comparable programs

Distance Learning Programs:

- Must meet eligibility Criteria
- Sign up at Ed Center
- Most are competitive

In-Residence Programs:

- Competitive
- Annual Data Call for Applications

Academic Degree Certification Training Part-Time (ADCT-PT)

The Civilian ADCT-PT program is a locally developed, off-duty, part-time competitive program that provides AFTC civilian employees with an opportunity to have college courses paid for by the Air Force. This program pays the full cost of tuition and instructional fees (not to exceed $4500 per FY) but does not pay for books or other miscellaneous fees. The Civilian Advisory Board for Career Development (CABCD) reviews the applications and makes selections. While there are no guarantees of future funding for this program, available funds will be distributed among selectees each year.

Eligibility:

- At least one year of permanent federal civil service employment at Edwards AFB.
- Must be actively pursuing a Bachelors or Masters degree at the time of application.

Local Educational Opportunities:

On-Base Colleges: Located in Ed Center

- Cerro-Coso Community College
- Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University
- Webster University
